300-400 - Your marketing is in very good shape, you now have just a small To-Do list to attend to.

250-300 - Your marketing needs some attention and you would benefit from some help to fine tune it. Your understanding of how to use online marketing is limited and your return on what you do is negligible.

150-250 - Your online marketing is restricted by your not understanding how to use it, what you can achieve with improving it, and you're well advised to seek help.

100-150 - Seek help now. There are many opportunities you are missing out on, and you are probably wasting a lot of money on advertising that is not reaching the market you are best placed to serve.
